Physical Activity Level & Mobility Requirements
Our battlefield tours are designed to experience history firsthand. While we include select museum visits, much of our time is spent outdoors exploring historic sites, often on uneven terrain, sandy beaches, grassy fields, steep hills, cobblestone streets, stairs, and pathways.
A moderate amount of walking and good personal mobility are essential. At some sites, participants may be standing or walking for 30–45 minutes, while other stops may involve a 10–15 minute walk between the coach and attractions, restaurants, or historical locations.
Although our tours do not involve strenuous hiking, regular walking is an important part of the experience. Unfortunately, our tours are not suitable for those who require wheelchairs or walkers. Participants who use a cane or walking sticks and have otherwise good mobility should be comfortable participating.
If you have mobility concerns or are unsure whether a tour is suitable for you, please review our Wheelchair & Mobility Policy or contact us at 1-833-828-TOUR (8687). We would be happy to discuss your individual circumstances before booking.

Day 3: Wednesday, September 15th
Exploring the Last 100 Days of WW1
We say our farewells to Flanders, Belgium this morning and depart for the Northern battlefields of France - but first - we will make a significant stop at the St. Symphorien Cemetery near the city of Mons. This is where the first and last actions in the First World War took place. Consequently, this is also where the first and last Allied casualties of the Great War are laid to rest. We continue our story of the Last 100 Days with a visit to the city of Cambrai, where we will stop for lunch and orientation of the deeply rooted Canadian action, still visible in the scars of the city's architecture. We continue further still, to Bourlon Wood, to see the memorial which commemorates the Canadian Corps' crossing at the Canal du Nord on November 11th, 1918. The stairs leading up to the memorial are lined with ancient lime trees that were nursed back to health after having been devastated by shellfire during the battle for Bourlon Wood. We finish our day in the city of Arras, where we will enjoy a group dinner together before our overnight.
Overnight: Arras
Meals Included: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 4: Thursday, September 16th
The Battlefields of 1917: Vimy Ridge & Hill 70
Today we take a tour to Vimy Ridge Memorial Park. It was on Hill 145, on April 1917, that Canada truly became a nation in the eyes of the world. Its troops combined and stormed Vimy Ridge after all other allied forces had failed to do so. We will tour the tunnels, trenches and memorial, as well as the new interpretation centre, which opened in Spring 2017 for the 100th Anniversary. Enjoy a locally prepared picnic lunch en route. In the afternoon, we continue to see the new Canadian Memorial at Hill 70. Here we will be discussing the Battle of Hill 70 - sometimes dubbed as "Canada's Forgotten Battle". When our explorations of the battlefields are through, we head back to Arras to explore the French city at our own pace. With its many shops, cafes and restaurants, take the time to also enjoy dinner with a surprise this evening.
Overnight: Arras

Day 5: Friday, September 17th
Exploring the Somme Battlefields
We will depart from Arras this morning and our day will be spent exploring the Somme - making visits to the Memorial to the Missing at Thiepval, as well the preserved battlefield memorial park at Beaumont Hamel - dedicated to the Royal Newfoundland and Labrador Regiment who lost so many men on that first day of battle. We will then continue on to view the Lochnagar Crater, among one of the largest craters on the battlefields of the Western Front. We will then visit the Dieppe Canadian Cemetery before travelling to Green Beach at Pourville. We will also view the main landing beaches of Red and White on the Dieppe seafront. Later, we will continue our journey to Normandy Landing Beaches for our hotel check-in, dinner, and overnight.

We will continue to Omaha Beach and the American Military Cemetery to discover the appalling difficulties required for landing on Bloody Omaha. After leaving Omaha, we visit La Chaos, the German offshore battery, which today sits relatively intact, even after 70+ years. This afternoon, we visit the Mulberry Harbors in Arromanches before heading back to Courseulles for another evening meal together.
Overnight: Juno Beach

Day 8: Monday, September 20th
Juno & The Battle of Normandy

We continue on to the Juno Beach Center, dedicated to the 3rd Division landings as well as Canada's full involvement during World War II. Before heading back for dinner, we will visit the Queens' Own Rifles House, the first house liberated by Canadian forces when they stormed the beaches at Juno on June 6th, 1944. From the panoramic decks, the city's landmarks slowly unfold - the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre, Notre-Dame, or the Pont Alexandre III.
